

WHAT'S INCLUDED IN THE PRICE?

The price include the square footage you've choose, three curtain walls (unless otherwise stated), chairs, table(s), bin(s), carpet and booth identification. Electricity and Internet are not included but can be order. If you have any other special requests, please let us know.

IF I ALREADY HAVE THE MATERIAL FOR MY BOOTH, CAN I OBTAIN A REBATE?

To exhibit at the show, you shall have a totally finished booth. By that, we mean curtain or rigid walls, carpet or any other floor finishing, chairs, table(s), bin(s) and booth identification. If you already have all of this, please contact us and we will discuss about it. Please note that all of your booth material must be fireproof and suit for the inspection by the Quebec City fire department. During the assembly day, inspectors will survey each booth and will ask for modification if something is not up to the requirement that the inspectors wants, they can, and will, require that the exhibitor change his booth to respect the standard set by the City. If you're not able to prove that some of your material is not fireproof, you will have to withdraw it.

WHAT ARE THE HOURS OF ASSEMBLY AND DISASSEMBLY?

Assembly date is on Friday November 17th. You can start at 1PM and must be finish at 9PM on the same day. Saturday November 18th, you'll have from 7AM to 9AM to conclude the assembly of your booth. The disassembly will start at 5PM on Sunday the 19th and must be complete before 11:59PM the same day. A fee of 500$ per hour will be charged by Expocité for each exhibitor that's not able to respect that deadline.

CAN I SELL MY PRODUCTS DURING THE EXHIBITION?

Of course you can! We invite you to propose some incentive for the visitors (rebate, gift, etc.) Keep in mind that the exhibition is close to the Holidays and people are searching for ideas and gifts. If you want more ideas on how you could make your presence at the show more profitable, please contact us and we will be happy to help you.

WHERE CAN I PARK MY CAR?

On assembly day, it's free to park your car. However, it cost $20 per car for the weekend to park your car inside the perimeter of Expocité. There are also parking spots available in the streets around Expocité. They are at walking distance. We cannot guarantee that there will be parking spots available in the streets around.
